PHLEGETHON joins LORD IMPALER

LORD IMPALER are pleased to announce that the search for a bassist is officially over with the addition of Phlegethon in their ranks. Phlegethon is a talented musician that has played in many local black and death metal bands in the past.

"I am really glad to have Phlegethon in the band", says vocalist Tragon, "because not only he is a great bass player, but also a very good friend". "His addition to the horde at that time will help us build a very strong follow-up album" guitarist Lord Nebulah added.

Lord Impaler is a melodic black metal band from northern Greece formed in 1998. The bass player spot has been left vacant a few months before the release of their self-financed debut album "Admire The Cosmos Black" that was mixed and mastered by Knut M. Valle (Arcturus) in Norway. The band is currently working on their second album.
